

Wick CE PRIMARY SCHOOL EQUALITIES POLICY

Wick CE Primary School provides an education for all, acknowledging that the primary focus of education is to promote equal life chances.

Rationale

Equality of opportunity and valuing diversity is about providing equality and excellence for all, in order to promote the highest possible standards of achievement. Equality of opportunity applies to all members of the school community: pupils, staff, governors, parents and community members.

It is based on the school's core values which underpin our ethos as expressed in our vision statement.

School Ethos

- The school opposes all forms of racism, harassment, prejudice and discrimination.
- The school publicly supports diversity and actively promotes good personal and community relations. Diversity is recognised as having a positive role to play within the school.
- Staff foster a positive atmosphere of mutual respect and trust among pupils from all groups.

Legal Responsibilities

We welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010 to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations in relation to age (as appropriate), disability, ethnicity, gender (including issues of transgender, and or maternity and pregnancy), religion and belief, and sexual identity.

We welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.

We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

Guiding principles

In fulfilling the legal obligations cited above, we are guided by nine principles:

Principle 1: All learners are of equal value

- We see all learners, potential learners and their parents and carers as of equal value.
- Whether or not they are disabled
- Whatever their ethnicity, culture, national origin or national status
- Whatever their gender and gender identity
- Whatever their religious or non-religious affiliation or faith background
- Whatever their sexual identity

Principle 2: We recognise and respect difference

Treating people equally (Principle 1) does not necessarily involve treating everyone the same. Our policies, procedures and activities must not discriminate but must nevertheless take account of differences of life experience, outlook and background and the kinds of barriers and disadvantages people may face, in relation to:

- Disability, so that reasonable adjustments are made
- Ethnicity, so that different cultural backgrounds and experiences of prejudice are recognised
- Gender, so that the different needs and experiences of girls and boys and women and men are recognised
- Religion, belief or faith background
- Sexual identity

Principle 3: We foster positive attitude and relationships, and a shared sense of cohesion and belonging

We intend that our policies, procedures and activities should promote:

- Positive attitudes towards disabled people, good relations between disabled and non-disabled people, and an absence of harassment of disabled people.
- Positive interaction, good relations and dialogue between groups and communities different from each other in terms of; ethnicity, culture and religious affiliation, national origin or national status and an absence of prejudice-related bullying and incidents.
- Mutual respect and good relations between boys and girls, women and men and an absence of sexual and homophobic harassment

Principle 4: We observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development

- We ensure that policies and procedures should benefit all employees and potential employees, for example in recruitment and promotion, and in continuing professional development:
- Whether or not they are disabled
- Whatever their ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status
- Whatever their gender and sexual identity and with full respect for legal rights relating to pregnancy and maternity.

Principle 5: We aim to reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist

In addition to avoiding or minimising possible negative impacts of our policies, we take opportunities to maximise positive impacts by reducing and removing inequalities and barriers that may already exist between:

- Disabled and non-disabled people
- People of different ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds
- Girls and boys, women and men

Principle 6: We consult and involve widely

We engage with a range of groups and individuals to ensure that those who are affected by a policy or activity are consulted and involved in the design of new policies, and in the review of existing ones. We consult and involve:

- Disabled people as well as non-disabled
- People from a range of ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds
- Both women and men and girls and boys
- People of all sexual orientation

Principle 7: Society as a whole should benefit

We intend that our policies and activities should benefit society as a whole, both locally and nationally, by fostering greater social cohesion and greater participation in public life of:

- Disabled people as well as non-disabled
- People of wide ranging ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds
- Both women and men, girls and boys
- People of all sexual orientation

Principle 8: We base our practices on sound evidence

We maintain and publish quantitative and qualitative information showing our compliance with the public sector equality duty (PSED) set out in clause 149 for the Equality Act 2010.

Principle 9: Objectives

We formulate and publish specific and measurable objectives, based on the evidence we have collected and published (Principle 8) and the engagement in which we have been involved (Principle 7)

The objectives which we identify take into account national and local priorities and issues, as appropriate.

We keep our equality objectives under review and report annually on progress towards achieving them.

The Curriculum

We keep each curriculum subject or area under review in order to ensure that teaching and learning reflect the principles.

Ethos and organisation

We ensure the principles listed above apply to the full range of our policies and practices, including those that are concerned with:

- Pupils' progress, attainment and achievement
- Pupils' personal development, welfare and well being
- Teaching styles and strategies
- Admissions and attendance
- Staff recruitment, retention and professional development
- Care, guidance and support
- Behaviour, discipline and exclusions
- Working in partnership with parents, carers and guardians
- Working with the wider community

Addressing prejudice and prejudice-related bullying

The school is opposed to all forms of prejudice which stand in the way of fulfilling the legal duties relating to:

Prejudice around disability and special educational needs.

Prejudices around racism and xenophobia, including those that are directed towards religious groups and communities, for example anti-Semitism and islamophobia, and those that are directed against Travellers, migrants, refugees and people seeking asylum.

Prejudices reflecting sexism and homophobia

We keep a record of prejudice-related incidents and report termly to the local authority with the numbers, types and seriousness of prejudice-related incidents at our school and how they are dealt with.

Roles and responsibilities

The governing body is responsible for ensuring that the school complies with legislation, and that this policy and its related procedures and action plans are implemented.

A member of the governing body has a watching brief regarding the implementation of this policy.

The head teacher is responsible for implementing the policy; for ensuring that all staff are aware of their responsibilities and are given appropriate training and support; and for taking appropriate action in any cases of unlawful discrimination.

All staff are expected to:

- Promote an inclusive and collaborative ethos in their classroom
- Deal with any prejudice-related incidents that may occur
- Plan and deliver curricula and lessons that reflect the principles in paragraph 4 above
- Keep up-to-date with equalities legislation relevant to their work

Information and resources

We ensure that the content of this policy is known to all staff and governors and, as appropriate, to all pupils and their parents and carers.

All staff and governors have access to a selection of resources which discuss and explain concepts of equality, diversity and community cohesion in appropriate detail.

Religious observance

We respect the religious beliefs and practice of all staff, pupils and parents, and comply with reasonable requests relating to religious observance and practice.

Staff development and training

We ensure that all staff, including support and administrative staff, receive appropriate training and opportunities for professional development, both as individuals and as groups or teams.

Breaches of the policy

Breaches of this policy will be dealt with in the same ways that breaches of other school policies are dealt with, as determined by the head teacher and governing body.

Monitoring and Review

This policy will be monitored and reviewed every three years to ensure that it does not disadvantage particular sections of the community, but promotes equality and values diversity.

In particular we collect, analyse and use data in relation to achievement, broken down as appropriate according to disabilities and special educational needs, ethnicity, culture, language, religious affiliation, national origin and national status, and gender.

Questions for assessing the impact of Wick CE Primary SchoolEqualities Policy

These questions give special attention to our pupils' attainment levels. These will be used to monitor the policy and provide reports to staff and governors.

1. Are all pupils in the school achieving as well as they can?
2. Do we help all pupils to achieve as much as they can, and get the most from what is on offer, based on their individual needs?
3. Which groups of pupils are not achieving as much as they can? Why not?
4. Are we making sure that policies, including our Equalities Policy, are not having an adverse impact on pupils, parents, staff or some racial groups?
5. How do we explain any differences? Are the explanations justified? Can they be justified on non-racial grounds, such as English Language difficulties? What actions have we taken to achieve improvements?
6. What are we doing to:
 - Prepare pupils for life in a diverse society
 - Promote equality and harmony
 - Prevent or deal with racism, sexism etc?
7. What changes do we need to make to relevant policies, aims, and any related targets and strategies?
